2015 Mid-Year Edition

IT'S A BIT UNUSUAL for a 13 year-old to spend part of her summer among destitute people, sharing their food and living among them. But this is what Kayla Parker did among a poverty-stricken people in Romania in 2009. Not only that, but she returned again the following year to minister to the physical and spiritual needs of children and adults.

Now, Kayla—a sophomore at Georgia Southern University—will spend part of this summer in Africa sharing the love of Christ by working on projects such as classroom construction, digging ditches, building stone huts, assisting teachers in a classroom, working in a medical clinic, and putting up fences... Building relationships and sharing the Gospel are integral parts of this trip.

There is something else very special about this mission-minded young woman. She is our granddaughter... Kayla wants to be undergirded by the prayers and financial support of Open Church Ministries. This is why we are sending you this OCM NewsPage.

2015 Mission Trip to Kenya, Africa
June 25 - July 5, 2015

Although Kenya has experienced some recent violence, Kayla and her mission team will fly into Nairobi and be taken five hours north to a remote village on the Equator. There is a British military base just south of their mission site.

You can help sow into the lives of people in Kenya by helping with the $2,500 budget for this trip that includes airfare, lodging, food, and transportation. Please send your mission gift to Open Church Ministries, 333 Reddick Road, Portal, GA 30450. Please write "African Mission" on your check. We will promptly send you a tax-deductable receipt and an update on Kayla's trip when she returns.
